

Outgoing principal slated to speak

Father Harold B. Gardner, CSB, will preside over his last Aquinas Institute commencement on Tuesday, June 23, as 160 seniors receive diplomas in the school's 89th graduation exercises.

Father Gardner, who steps down as Aquinas' principal this year, will also deliver the commencement address for the ceremony, which will begin at 8 p.m. at the Eastman Theatre.

Class valedictorian is Amy Lynn Reynders, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reynders of Lake Avenue, Rochester. She plans to pursue pre-medical studies next fall at Rutgers University.

Salutatorian for the class of 1992 is Marcia Meagher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Meagher of Westway in Rochester. She will enroll at William Smith College in the fall and plans to major in biology.

Project to employ low-income youths

ROCHESTER — Project HOPE is looking for organizations to provide summer job openings for young people in the Rochester area.

Project HOPE (Hire One Person Enthusiastically) seeks to provide employment for 500 youths who come from low- and moderate-income families. The organization is asking individuals, businesses, non-profit organizations and churches to create positions for eight-week periods.

Those wishing to participate in the program can call the Catholic Family Center/Catholic Youth Organization office at 716/454-2030 by June 17.
