

Parishes announce graduates of public schools

Sixty-one parishes responded this year to the Catholic Courier's call for lists of all parishioners graduating this spring from public schools within the Rochester diocese.

The names of graduates — as submitted by their pastors, religious-education coordinators and youth ministers — appear below. They are arranged in alphabetical order, first by parish, then by public school attended, and then by students' last names.

The names of valedictorians and salutatorians appear in boldface if they were identified as such by their parishes.

Guides available on sustaining Earth

DES MOINES, Iowa (CNS) — The National Catholic Rural Life Conference has published study guides to help children, teenagers and adults learn their role in sustaining and protecting the Earth.

Titled "Renewing the Earth," the guides examine key environmental issues and offer suggestions for action.
