'DE COLORES'

Cursillistas seek to evangelize

Back in 1976, Tony Rocchi was working in an Elmira valve shop, where magazines like Playboy often occupied the thoughts and conversations of Rocchi and his co-workers.

Then Rocchi went on a Cursillo weekend, a three-day program of prayer liturgy and discussions designed to enrich participants' Catholic faith by immersing them in a "mini-course" in Christian basics.

Like all Cursillo participants, Rocchi was sponsored by a cursillista, another Catholic who already had completed a
