

Kaleidoscope of art draws local children

Kaleidoscope, a traveling arts program for children, set up shop on the grounds of the Memorial Art Gallery in Rochester last week. The 23-year-old exhibit was created and funded by Hallmark and attracts about 54,000 children annually. Its purpose is stimulating children's innate creativity. Kaleidoscope volunteer Karen Boucher (right) of Pittsford assists Kristin Oogjen at the hand-puppet table on Aug 20.
