

NEWCOMERS'

G · U · I · D · E

SPECIAL SUPPLEMENT TO THE
CATHOLIC COURIER
SEPTEMBER 10, 1992

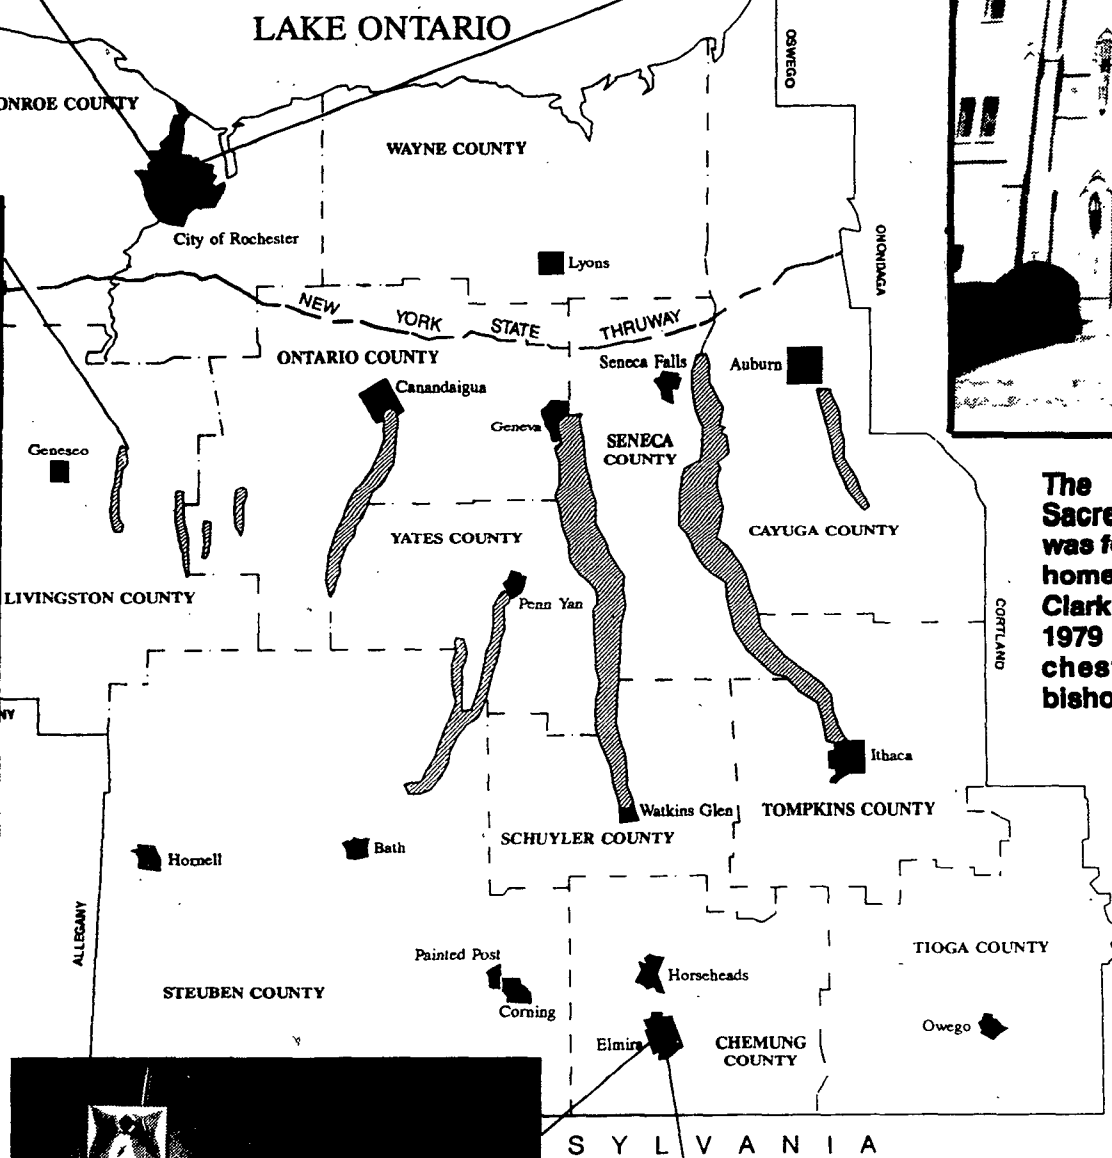

Courtesy of Catholic Family Center
In addition to regional offices in Elmira and Geneva, diocesan Social Ministry reaches out to families and individuals through the Catholic Family Center in Rochester, which offers numerous service and counseling programs.

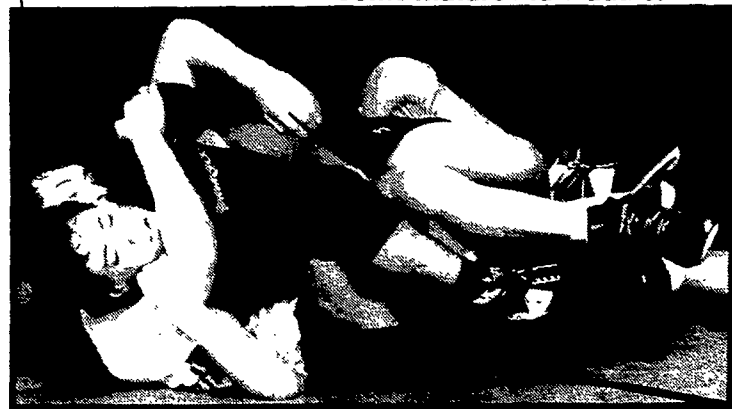

File photo
The rectory at Rochester's Sacred Heart Cathedral, which was founded in 1911, has been home to Bishop Matthew H. Clark since shortly after his 1979 installation as the Rochester diocese's eighth bishop.

File photo
Camp Stella Maris in Livonia provides family retreats, camping vacations for senior citizens, and residential camping under Catholic auspices for boys and girls — ages seven to 14 — of all faiths.

File photo
Mount Saviour Monastery in Pine City is one of the diocese's monastic or cloistered communities of men and women religious that offer Catholics contact with contemplative prayer and opportunities for retreats.

File photo

One of seven Catholic high schools in the Rochester diocese, Elmira Notre Dame combines academic study and athletics in a faith-filled environment to help students become mature individuals.