

CFC to mark its 75 years with gala musical event

ROCHESTER — Catholic Family Center, 25 Franklin St., will celebrate its 75th anniversary with a musical masquerade on Saturday, Oct. 17.

This gala event will take place at the Strong Museum, 1 Manhattan Square, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. The evening's special honored guest will be Thomas C. Wilmot, president of Wilmorite Corporation, for his contributions to the CFC.

Entertainment will be provided by the Don Sherman Group.

Tickets are $75 per person or $100 per couple. For details, or to reserve tickets, call 716/262-7150.

St. John's in Greece to host education series on aging

GREECE — Mercy Center with the Aging will present a Family Education Series on Aging — co-sponsored by Greece Baptist and St. John the Evangelist churches — at St. John's Parish Center, 2400 Ridge Road W.

The series will take place 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesday evenings, from Oct. 20 to Dec. 1, with the exception of Election Day, Nov. 3. The program is intended for older adults, their families and their caregivers.

To pre-register, call 716/225-8980.

AIDS workshop scheduled for Oct. 16-17 in Wayland

WAYLAND — St. Joseph's Church, 206 Fremont St., has scheduled a workshop on AIDS.

A session for adults will take place on Friday, Oct. 16, at 7 p.m. in the church. An additional meeting for parents and their children in grades 6 through 12 will be held the following day from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the parish school, 209 Fremont St.

The workshop's purpose is to present facts about AIDS so that families may use the information in future discussions. The weekend's intent is also to stress the traditional moral values of modesty and chastity.

Parish burns mortgage papers

Father Edward L. Palumbos (right), pastor of Greece's St. Charles Borromeo Church, watches along with parishioner Andy Gray as the church's mortgage papers burn during a parish picnic Sept. 27. The church paid off the mortgage, which was taken out in 1967, in July.

Blue Suspenders to perform benefit concert

GENEVA — The Finger Lakes Office of Social Ministry, 110 Exchange St., has scheduled several events to mark its 10th anniversary.

The commemoration will begin with a folk concert by the Blue Suspenders on Friday, Oct. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the DeSales High School gymnasium, 90 Pulteney St.

The folk singing group, comprising five Sisters of St. Joseph, is calling the concert, "How Can I Keep From Singing." The family concert is open to children and adults of all ages.

Other events to mark the anniversary include an educational day scheduled for March 27, 1993, and a Mass and dinner slated for June 5.

Admission is a free will offering. Proceeds will benefit FLOSM's programs. Refreshment will be available.

Call 315/789-2686 for information.

Church slates parish center groundbreaking

HONEOYE — Following the 11 a.m. Mass Sunday, Oct. 18, parishioners of St. Mary, Our Lady of the Hills Church, 8961 Main St., will break ground for their new Parish Center.

After two years of planning and fundraising, the architectural firm of LaBella Associates, PC, has developed plans for the center. Frank Marianacci, Inc., of Holcomb, will handle the center's construction.

The parish has grown in the last six years from 270 to 350 families. In addition to providing religious education facilities, the 4,800 square feet of new space in the center will provide meeting rooms for parish and social activities. The center is scheduled to be completed by March, 1993.

School sets Oct. 16 date for fundraising marathon

WATERLOO — St. Mary's School has scheduled its annual fundraising marathon for Oct. 16, beginning at the school, 29 Center St.

The event will include separate sections and routes for various age groups.

Students in grades 4 through 8 will walk or bike the half-mile marathon route between noon and 2 p.m. K-3 students will participate in a mini-marathon around the school and church grounds, with the kindergartners walking between 12:30 and 1:30 p.m. Students in the other three grades will walk from 1-2:30 p.m.

St. Mary's teachers are also arranging a special "micro" marathon for preschoolers.

All money raised during the marathon will be used to purchase school supplies.

For information, call 315/539-2733.

Historian plans to lecture on the church, election

ROCHESTER — Historian David J. O'Brien will speak on "The Church and the Election: Catholics and Presidential Politics," at the University of Rochester's Interfaith Chapel at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 21.

In addition to teaching history and Roman Catholic studies at Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass., O'Brien is a member of the Task Force on Justice Education of the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities. He is also a member of the Association for Religion and Intellectual Life. O'Brien received his doctorate from University of Rochester in 1964.

The lecture is free and open to the public. The program is part of the John Henry Newman Lecture series, created to focus on issues involving religious faith and intellectual endeavor.
