

Workshop to offer insight into 'religious imagination'

CANANDAIGUA — "Teaching and Religious Imagination," will be the focus of an upcoming two-day workshop scheduled for Notre Dame Retreat House, 5151 Foster Road. The program will run from 1 p.m. Jan. 21 to 2:30 p.m. Jan. 22.

Maria Harris, author of such books as Teaching and Religious Imagination, The D.R.E. Reader and Portrait of Youth Ministry, will direct the workshop.

Sponsored by the diocesan Department of Evangelization and Catechesis, the workshop is intended for catechetical leaders, youth ministers and pastoral assistants.

Cost for the workshop is $110, which includes all meals. Participants are asked to bring a snack to share. Checks should be made payable to the Diocese of Rochester.

Registration forms are due by Jan. 7.

For information or a registration form, write: Mary Ellen FitzGibbons, Department of Evangelization and Catechesis, 1150 Buffalo Road, Rochester, N.Y. 14624.

Holy Rosary reunion set

ROCHESTER — The class of 1943 from Holy Rosary School is planning a reunion for May, 1993.

Any interested graduates should call George Bisnett at 716/671-2540 or Joyce Buckley at 227-0268.

Helping hands

Bobbie G. Augustin/Photo editor
Monica Bradbury, a member of the youth group at St. Mary's of the Lake Church in Ontario, prepares cake slices at the St. Peter's Kitchen, 681 Brown St., Rochester, on Nov. 21. The date marked one year in which the youth group, which volunteers monthly, has helped out at the soup kitchen.

Kitchen seeks volunteers, food and cash donations

ELMIRA — The Elmira Free Kitchen, 160 High St., will serve a free dinner on Christmas Day between 2-3 p.m.

Approximately 200 guests are expected for this 12th annual event. Donations of ham, fresh apples, Christmas cookies, hard candies and money are requested. Volunteers are also needed to help prepare and serve the dinners.

Call 607/734-5893 for details.

The kitchen is also requesting cash contributions to cover operating costs for 1993. Checks can be made payable to Free Community Kitchen and sent to 160 High St., Elmira, 14901.

In addition, the kitchen needs "captains" for its 1 to 4 p.m. shift, approximately once per month, from January through March. Call 607/732-1661.

Diocesan Social Ministry begins meal voucher program

ROCHESTER — The diocesan Social Ministry Office has begun a yearlong meal voucher program in cooperation with Anthony F. Mugnolo, owner of 11 Arby's Restaurants in Monroe County.

The "Neighbors in Need" program is aimed at assisting local families in short-term financial crisis.

The Catholic Family Center's emergency service department, along with the pastoral staffs of several Monroe County parishes, will identify families most in need and distribute a "VIP Card" for use by the household. The card allows a family — of any size — to visit its neighborhood Arby's restaurant 14 times within the month.

Each of Mugnolo's restaurants will serve four families per month in the program, making for a total of 528 families served during the year.

Sisters of St. Joseph's store marks 15th year of operation

ROCHESTER — The Sisters of St. Joseph have operated Cornerstone Crafts on the ground floor of their motherhouse, 4095 East Ave., for the last 15 years.

The store offers handmade gifts, cards and religious items made by the sisters.

Proceeds from the Cornerstone help support various ministries and retired sisters. Beginning in 1993, the store also plans to offer items from the Third World. Proceeds from the sales of such items will benefit economic enterprises to help the impoverished.

The store is open Tuesday-Saturday, from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. For information, call 716/586-1000, ext. 37. The motherhouse is handicapped accessible.
