

Dancers form a circle around dance leader Jim Leff as he beats a Middle Eastern drum.

Dances celebrate God and peace

The Dances of Universal Peace came to Corpus Christi Church, 864 Main St. E., Rochester, for the first time ever on March 26. The gatherings, which are held monthly at the Yoga Society in Rochester and various other locations, focus on simple circle dances that provide a prayerful, meditative and joyful way to praise God. The dances come from a variety of faith traditions and often include different languages phrases such as Hebrew and Arabic.
