Former champions still in form

Reunion draws hundreds to ND

About 400 people turned out at Elmira Notre Dame High School, 1400 Maple Ave., March 27 to watch the school's 1978 New York State Class A Basketball Championship team play the 1993 Crusaders. The former state champions won the game on a half-court shot at the buzzer by Steve Ramich (class of '78). The contest, which served as a fundraiser for the Catholic high school, gave alumni a chance to catch up on old times. In addition to John Long (class of '79) traveling from California to join his teammates, some fans came from as far away as Boston to catch the action.

Carl Schiefen, who graduated from Elmira Notre Dame in 1979, gets a congratulatory hug from two of his biggest fans — 3-year-old son Gregory and 4-year-old niece Brittany Schiefen.
