

Air Expo '93 slated for May 14-16 at Rochester airport

ROCHESTER — Air Expo '93 is coming to town as part of the 1993 Lilac Festival. This aerial extravaganza will be presented May 14-16 at the Greater Rochester International Airport.

In addition to various aircraft displays, a performance by the U.S. Air Force flight demonstration team, The Thunderbirds, will highlight the weekend's activities.

Proceeds from Air Expo '93 will benefit Camp Good Days and Special Times, Inc., a Rochester-area charity which services children with cancer and AIDS.

Volunteers are also needed for this event. For ticket information, or to volunteer, call 716/624-5555.

Parish to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday

April 18 Mass will honor Polish sister

ROCHESTER — St. Cecilia Church, 2732 Culver Road, will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday this Sunday, April 18. The event will feature the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 3 p.m., followed by a Mass celebrated by Father Dennis Bonsignore, the parish's parochial vicar.

Divine Mercy Sunday originated with the reported visions of Sister M. Faustina Kowalska, a member of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Cracow, Poland. On Feb. 22, 1931, the Lord reportedly appeared to Sister Faustina and told her to paint a portrait of him as he looked at the moment, and to inscribe the painting with the words: "Jesus I Trust in You." Sister Faustina said Jesus was dressed in a white garment with two rays emanating from his chest. The pale ray represented "the Water that makes souls righteous," and the red beam symbolized "the Blood which is the life of souls."

Jesus also reportedly asked Sister Faustina to call for a feast of Divine Mercy in the church to be celebrated the Sunday after Easter. "Whoever will go to confession and holy Communion on that day will receive complete forgiveness of sin and punishment," the Lord allegedly told Sister Faustina.

Father Donald McCarthy, CSB, an expert on Sister Faustina's life, will be the guest homilist at the Divine Mercy Mass, which will coincide with Pope John Paul II's beatification of Sister Faustina in Rome, Italy, that same day. The pope once served as archbishop of Sister Faustina's home diocese.

A period of eucharistic adoration and Benediction will follow the Mass. Confession will also be heard both before and after Mass.

At the conclusion of the services, a video titled, "The Life and Times of Sister Faustina — the Apostle of Divine Mercy," will be shown in the parish's video room. Refreshments will be served. Call 716/425-1396 or 266-3655 for information.

For free information concerning Sister Faustina and her message, call 1-800-462-7426 or write Marian Helpers, Stockbridge, Mass. 01263. Ask for information packet DMPK.

In addition, Eternal Word Television Network will air "The Promise of Mercy," a 30-minute video leading the viewer in praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, on Saturday, April 17. The program can be seen on Greater Rochester Cablevision Channel 3 from 3:30-4 a.m.
