Casa honors local artists

The Casa Italiana of Nazareth College in Rochester will honor Achille Forglone and Carl Zolfo with the 1993 Casa Italiana Recognition Award. The artists will receive their awards during the 14th Annual Primavera Ball at the Stouffer Rochester Plaza Hotel, 70 State St., Rochester on Friday, April 30. The award honors individuals who have shown exceptional commitment to improving the quality of life for people in the Rochester community. Contact Roseann Centanni, Casa Italiana coordinator, at 716/586-8744 for information.

Forglone works on a welded-steel sculpture.

Forglone relaxes in the front room of his home-studio, framed (at right) by his sculpture of the flight of Icarus.

PARISH MISSION: conducted by Franciscan Friars Ministry of the Word; St. Christopher Church, 3350 Union St.,

A welded-steel sculpture titled, 'My Elegant Lady,' is on loan from H. Kreitzman's collection for display at the ball. In addition to his active involvement in the Arena Art Group, Forglone has taught in the artists-in-residence program at Fairport High School for 18 years.

In his spare time, Forglone creates decorative pendants, which have been avidly collected by — most notably — actor Roddy McDowell, who bought more than 60.
