Zollo is framed by the first version of a steel sculpture of the 'Risen Christ' in his Gates studio. The final piece decorates the altar at St. Theodore Church in Gates.

The Eastman Kodak Company commissioned Zollo to create this table for one of its new offices in Rochester. In addition to boasting more than 45 commissioned pieces in public spaces, the artist has worked on three major motion pictures.

Zollo works in many media, which is evident in this piece at Nazareth College of Rochester.
