

Parishes announce public-school graduates

Fifty-nine parishes and parish clusters responded this year to the Catholic Courier's call for lists of parishioners graduating this spring from public schools within the Diocese of Rochester.

The names of graduates — as submitted by their pastors, religious-education coordinators or youth ministers — appear on this and several pages that follow.

The students' names are arranged in alphabetical order — first by parish name, then public school attended and, finally, by last names.

The names of public-school valedictorians and salutatorians — as reported by their parishes — appear in boldface type.
