Mercy founders slate concerts with Johnny Cash, '60s folk trio

ROCHESTER — The Founders Club of the Sisters of Mercy plans to raise monies for the order's Education Fund with a little help from Puff the Magic Dragon and a Boy Named Sue.

The famed folk trio Peter, Paul and Mary, and the legendary Man In Black, country singer Johnny Cash, will both perform on the order's behalf in November and December.

Peter, Paul and Mary will perform on Sunday, Nov. 7, at 7 p.m., in the Eastman Theatre, 26 Gibbs St. The trio will perform such classics as "Blowin' In the Wind," "If I Had a Hammer," and, of course, "Puff the Magic Dragon."

Then on Tuesday, Dec. 14, Cash and his wife, June Carter, will bring the Johnny Cash Christmas Show to the Eastman at 8 p.m. Cash, the musical godfather to many of today's country acts, is known for such songs as "I Walk the Line," "Folsom Prison Blues," and "A Boy Named Sue."

Cash's wife belongs to the famed Carter musical family, and the couple's son, John Carter Cash, and other family members will be on hand to perform Cash's hits and some holiday carols.

The Founders Club is a not-for-profit organization raising money for the continuing education of the Sisters of Mercy of Rochester. These performances will also mark the club's 25th anniversary.

Tickets for both shows are on sale now at the Founders Club Box Office, Sisters of Mercy Motherhouse, 1437 Blossom Road. Phone orders are being accepted at 716/288-4817.

St. John's alumni sought to create network

ROCHESTER — St. John the Evangelist School, 545 Humboldt St., is looking to contact graduates to form an Alumni Network.

According to Barbara A. Scahill, a member of the Alumni Committee, this network "would serve as a vehicle to reconnect old friends and to provide support and enrichment to our current school community."

Scahill said a project for which support is immediately needed is the construction of a parish/school playground by the spring of 1994. This project, which is part of an expanded preschool and after-school care program, has been designed to complement the existing physical education program for St. John's students.

Those people wishing to financially support this project should send donations to: St. John's School, Playground Fund, c/o Principal Joyce McAndrew, 545 Humboldt St., Rochester, N.Y. 14610.

Former graduates interested in becoming part of the Alumni Network may call Goldie Rogers at the school, 716/654-9437, or write to the Alumni Network in care of the school. They should provide their names, addresses, phone numbers and class years.
