carries. Kevin Wilson added two fourth-quarter touchdowns, and Dan Wilson made eight rushes for 108 yards and one TD.

Coach Mike D'Aloisio indicated that the recent trend of lopsided wins will probably cease beginning this Friday Oct. 15, when Notre Dame plays host to non-league opponent Tioga — which enters the 7:30 p.m. contest with a 5-0-1 record.

"They get tough from here on out. I don't think our kids have a false sense of security," said D'Aloisio.

Kearney jumped out to a 12-0 half-time lead over Victor on two second-quarter touchdowns by Sloan: a one-yard run and a 29-yard pass play with quarterback Bob Pellegrino.

The Blue Devils got to within 12-7 in the third quarter on Nick Bills' 15-yard scoring run. Pellegrino and Sloan then hooked up on a 65-yard TD pass play later in the period.

The two scoring throws were BK's only completions all evening. Both were short passes Sloan turned into big gainers.

"Sherrard has turned into a pretty good running back," Coach Nick Teta said of his senior.

Next up for the Kings is a Finger Lakes East road game against Newark, on Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Aquinas fell behind 7-0 to East on a two-yard score in the first period by the Orientals' Keyonna Dennis. The Little Irish got to within 7-6 in the third quarter on a seven-yard touchdown carry by Jim Miner.

The game's most crucial play occurred immediately following Miner's score. Gabe Bauza went into the end zone untouched for what appeared to be a two-point conversion and 8-7 lead, but the Little Irish were whistled for an illegal-motion penalty. AQ's ensuing two-point attempt was thwarted by East.

"We won the game, but we lost the game," remarked AQ Coach Joe Munno.

Despite its 3-3 record, Aquinas is still in the running for a Section 5 Class BB playoff spot. However, the Irish will need a victory over McQuaid at Fauver this Friday to stay alive.
