

Judge Ann Pfeiffer scored highest among the eight Rochester City Court Judges in a recent evaluation by Fund for Modern Courts, an independent "court watch" organization. She was awarded a 98% overall rating in twelve categories of courtroom management. The report stated: "Judge Pfeiffer impressed the monitors as being professional, fair, and wise... Judge Pfeiffer's demeanor was calm and pleasant...very efficient and well prepared... Judge Pfeiffer was found to be a no-nonsense judge who gave the impression of being all business."

Endorsements for Judge Pfeiffer include the United Auto Workers Local 1097, the Monroe County Deputy Sheriffs' Association, Steelworkers Local 3298 at Goulds Pumps, R.A.I.D. (Rochester Against Intoxicated Driving), Local 2256 Security & Law Enforcement Employees Union, and The Corning Leader. In a recent public endorsement, State Assembly-member Susan John said, "Judge Ann Pfeiffer is the best qualified candidate for State Supreme Court: professional, fair, and wise, with good judgement. That's what a judge should be."

The committee to elect Judge Ann Pfeiffer to State Supreme Court urges residents of Monroe, Wayne, Ontario, Seneca, Cayuga, Yates, Steuben, and Livingston counties to vote on November 2.
