RG&E's $7 Bulb Buck rebates make energy-saving compact fluorescent bulbs an even brighter choice.

There's never been a better time than now to switch to compact fluorescents for RG&E residential electric customers. With rebates of $7 per pack — up to a $28 limit, you start saving right away.

And compact fluorescents can add up to an even greater value over the years. Compared to regular bulbs, they use up to 75% less energy while giving the same level of light. Plus, they last nearly ten times as long.

Fact is, today's lamps are more compact and better engineered than ever. And they'll never be more affordable. So hurry into your retailer while the bulb bucks are back. The savings are out there and they're just waiting for you.

To find out more, visit your store or check your recent RG&E mailing. Or call 325-6832 (1-800-677-7118 outside the local calling area). Offer ends December 31, 1993. Limit 4 rebates per household. Other restrictions apply.
