IN REVIEW FEATURE

New Line Cinema
Luke Perry Stars as Lane Frost in New Line Cinema's action-drama, 8 Seconds.

Perry and Snipes shine in newest film releases

NEW YORK (CNS) — The following are capsule reviews of movies recently reviewed by the U.S. Catholic Conference Office for Film and Broadcasting.

8 Seconds

Dramatization of the brief but eventful life of world champion bull rider Lane Frost (Luke Perry), who gained rodeo fame alongside best friend and competitor Tuff Hedeman (Stephen Baldwin) and weathered a stormy relationship with his wife (Cynthia Geary) and a demanding father (James Rebhorn). Director John G. Avildsen turns out a flavorsome rodeo movie with inspirational themes of friendship and forgiveness, which are unfortunately expressed through corny dialogue and an overly sentimental treatment. Very discreet references to adultery and some rodeo injuries depicted. (New Line) The U.S. Catholic Conference classification is A-II — adults and adolescents. The Motion Picture Association of America rating is PG-13 — parents are strongly cautioned that some material may be inappropriate for children under 13.

On Deadly Ground

Realizing his ruthless oil industrialist boss (Michael Caine) is knowingly contaminating the Alaskan wilderness and risking many lives in the process, an explosives expert (Steven Seagal) decides to blow up the central pumping station, with the help of an Inuit woman (Joan Chen) bent on avenging her father's murder. Also directed by Seagal, he self-servingly presents his violent character as an indestructible hero, but the absurd script is unbelievable, its attempts at Native American mysticism shallow and its passionate environmental closing speech preceded by countless scenes of glossy mayhem and murder. (Warner Bros.) Numerous scenes of brutal violence and gory deaths, some nudity and much rough language. The USCC classification is O — morally offensive. The MPAA rating is R — restricted.

Sugar Hill

Wanting to begin an honest life down South with his love (Theresa Randle), a

David Lee/Twentieth Century Fox
Wesley Snipes stars as Roemello Skuggs in Sugar Hill.

Harlem drug dealer (Wesley Snipes) vacillates while he and his volatile brother-partner (Michael Wright) get trapped in a deadly drug turf war with tragic consequences for his family. Underlying director Leon Ichaso's often violent melodrama is a powerful anti-drugs-and-guns message, which comes through in the movie's anguished portrait of families destroyed by the scourge of crime and addiction. Intermittent intense violence, some harrowing scenes of drug use and much rough language. (20th Century Fox) The USCC classification is A-IV — adults, with reservations. The MPAA rating is R — restricted.
