squad. Our Lady of Mercy guard Kerri Boroski joined Jensen on the Red's roster (she had no points), and BK Coach Paul Forte served as a co-coach for the Red.

The boys' game also went to the Gold, which outscored the Red by a 94-85 count. Aquinas Institute forward/guard Shawn Finein (five points) and BK center/forward Richard Cannon (three points) played for the Red squad.

Finein acknowledged that he enjoyed the unique opportunity of competing in an exhibition contest with some of his City-Catholic League rivals.

"It was exciting playing with guys like (Franklin High School stars) Robert Stevenson and Marlin Johnson," Finein remarked.

Most Valuable Player awards for the games went to: Greece Athena's Kendra Damann, who scored 12 points for the girls' Gold team; Waterloo's Sandy Mitchell, who collected 17 points for the girls' Red team; Mynderse Academy's Bob Markel, who had nine points, five rebounds and five assists for the boys' Gold squad; and Greece Olympia's Mike Grosodonia, who finished with 12 points for the boys' Red team.
