Spirituality faire slated for April 24-25

PITTSFORD — St. Louis Church, 60 S. Main St., will present Spirituality Faire '94 from 6:30 to 9:45 p.m. on April 24-25.

Based on the theme "Experiencing the Presence of God," the faire's schedule is as follows:

6:30 p.m. — Spirituality resource centers open; a chance to meet people from local spiritual centers.

On Sunday, a choir from Bethel Full Gospel Church, Rochester, will perform.

On Monday, singer Cathi Leigh Johnson will perform with Mitzie Collins, noted hammered dulcimer player and founder of Sampler Records.

7 p.m. — Opening rites; on Sunday, the gathering will be blessed, and followed by a narrative presentation of the children's classic Old Turtle, a story about where to look for God.

On Monday, the rites will feature hymns and songs.

Each of the ceremonies will be followed by major speeches.

On Sunday, Monsignor William H. Shannon, author of five books on Thomas Merton, the late Trappist monk and writer, will speak on "How Can We Be Truly Aware of the Presence of God?" The first president of the International Thomas Merton Society, Monsignor Shannon is also chaplain of the Sisters of St. Joseph Motherhouse.

On Monday, Mary Damian Zynda, visiting professor of spirituality at St. Bernard's Institute, will speak on "What If We Allow Ourselves to Experience God?" For the past 20 years, she has been involved in creating a contemplative prayer form known as Sacred Movement. Zynda will be joined by Mitzie Collins.

8 p.m. — On both nights, spiritual interest sessions on the following topics will be offered, along with sessions on topics not listed: "Experiencing God in Our Surroundings;" "God: The Great Questions;" "The Non-Violent God of Merton, Dorothy Day and Other Catholic Workers;" "Experiencing God in Music;" "Prayer When God Seems Absent;" "Spirituality of the Dying Experience;" and "God and the Consistent Life Ethic."

9:20 p.m. — Closing rites; on Sunday, Bishop Matthew H. Clark will preside at a Taiz style night prayer, featuring Father Robert Ring as cantor with cellist Adam Langer Pearson and oboist Johanna Cox.

On Monday, Zynda, Collins and Johnson will present a song, prayer and blessing.

A $6 donation is requested for one night; a two-night ticket is available for $10 in advance from the St. Louis Christian Formation Center, 46 S. Main St., Pittsford, N.Y. 14534.

Scholarships are also available. No one will be refused admission for financial reasons.

The faire will be interpreted for the deaf. Volunteers are also needed for various tasks. Call 716/381-4455.
