"You're going through life, have a good job... things are going real, real well. All of a sudden, tragedy strikes, whether it be your child or a neighbor's child, or anything else. United Way is a good way of knowing that there's someone out there that your dollars are going to...to help in that time of need."

"You may experience a wake-up call someday."

Tom Johnson knows. He's been there. Give to United Way.

Feel good again
