

Youth ministers 'go out on a limb'

High above the ground, Father Brian C. Cool of St. John of Rochester Church in Fairport takes a 'leap of faith' off a platform and grabs hold of the 'Tarzan' rope to swing himself to the next obstacle.

MaryEllen Bashaw of St. John of Rochester in Fairport, pulls herself hand over hand toward Michelle Levy from St. Patrick's in Mt. Morris. The exercise was all part of 'Out on a Limb,' an April 30 ropes course for diocesan youth ministers at the B.O.C.E.S. campus in Rush. During exercises participants explored risk taking and letting go as well as the support and encouragement of others.

Michael Collins (left), of St. Mary's Church in Elmira, and Pat Knapp, from St. Mary Our Mother Church in Horseheads, hold down the rope ladder as they watch the progress one of their comrades.

Micheal Theisen, coordinator for youth ministry, holds the belay line as Michelle Levy leaves the ground.

--	--	---	---	--

Attend one of these seminars and you'll receive a FREE, one-hour, private consultation to answer any questions you have about setting up your personal Living Trust.

You'll Find Out With a Revocable Living Trust...

- How your estate will transfer quickly to your family upon your death, without the expense of probate.
- How if you're married and your estate is worth less than $1.2 million, there may be no federal estate taxes to pay.
- How to avoid a guardianship of your property if you become incapacitated so your estate will be run as you see fit.

You'll Find Out Without a Revocable Living Trust (even if you have a will...)

- How your estate will go through probate, which could take up to 18 months, and probate fees could amount to 4-10% of your estate.
- How if you're married and your estate is worth more than $600,000 net, your family may owe federal estate taxes of 37%-55%.
- How if you become incapacitated, or unable to sign documents, a court may assign a guardian to run your estate.
