Penfield snares softball tourney

The Bishop Kearney Kings and Nazareth Lasers hosted a softball tournament at Irondequoit's McAvoy Park April 30. After four competitive games, Penfield emerged as the tourney winner with a 10-4 win over Nazareth in the championship game. Bishop Kearney took the consolation game with a resounding 17-2 win over New York City's Martin Luther King High School.

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES

Listening Sessions Planned

For Synod recommendation #5, the next step is a series of listening sessions designed to put your ideas and experiences to work. The analysis team for small Christian communities will sponsor meetings throughout the diocese between May 16 and June 9.

Results of the team's work will be presented at the sessions. You are invited to offer suggestions for establishing and promoting small Christian communities.
