We are involved with an interesting older woman.

Oh, the stories she could tell you. About wartime, the depression, even the roaring 20's. She's a beloved mother and grand-mother. A retired business owner. She's lived through more presidents than she can remember. And seen her world change tremendously. Needless to say, she's special to a lot of people. Including all of us at RG&E. That's why we offer a range of services tailored to the special needs of seniors. Large-print bills to make reading and understanding an RG&E statement easier. Quarterly billing to make payment more convenient. And third-party notification to let a loved one know if a payment has been forgotten. Know someone who could use some of these special services? RG&E is interested in helping. Very interested. Call 546-1111 or your local RG&E office for more information.
