

Order launches appeal to raise ministry funds

ROCHESTER — The Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester are launching their third annual appeal drive to raise money for their ministries.

A direct mail letter describing a variety of the sisters' ministries has been mailed to all previous donors. The drive's theme, "Make a Little Go a Long Way" points to the congregation's desire to use donations efficiently in ministries and in support for retired and infirmed sisters.

If you would like to help the sisters in their work and have not received an appeal letter, contact Pamela Roby, director of development, at 716/586-1000, ext. 151.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester are a not-for-profit congregation of women religious serving since 1854.

Noon Mass continues to draw workers

ROCHESTER — Corpus Christi Church's Downtown Thursday Noon Mass continues to draw nearly 50-44 worshippers on a weekly basis, according to Father Jim Callan, pastor.

"Our intention is to connect our spirituality with our workplace, to let workers know that their work is important to the church and to God," Father Callan said through a statement last week.

"Most people's ministry is what they do at work and at home, and for too long the church has ignored the importance of this," he continued. "The Downtown Mass, I hope, is a way for the church to affirm and support and promote people's ministry in daily life."

The Mass begins every Thursday at 12:10 p.m. on the third floor of the Alliance Building, 183 E. Main St. People of all faiths are welcome. For information, call Father Callan at 716/654-8396.

Hispanic mission slated for Rochester Aug. 22-27

ROCHESTER — Bishop Matthew H. Clark will preside at the opening night of a Hispanic Mision slated for Aug. 22-27 at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, 1089 Joseph Ave.

Father Feliciano Rodriguez, a priest from the Diocese of Caguas, Puerto Rico, will preach during the Mision, which will take place each evening from 7 to 9 p.m. Funded by the Thanks Giving Appeal, the mission is sponsored by the diocese's Spanish Apostolate.

Sales from booklet of ancient songs to aid Albany schools

ALBANY — Chant, a booklet containing the Latin and English translations of ancient songs now available on compact disc, is currently on sale through the Catholic School Office in Albany.

The compact disc features Gregorian chant performed by the Benedictine monks of Santo Domingo De Silos. The chants commonly heard at pre-Vatican II Masses can now be heard on radio stations and soap operas and at dance clubs.

Proceeds from the booklet's sale will benefit Albany's inner-city Catholic schools. Copies can be obtained by sending a check for $3 to: Catholic School Office, 40 N. Main Ave., Albany, N.Y. 12203.
