

Runners storm to 30th McQuaid Invitational

Popular meet draws 5,000 boys and girls

Over a 30-year period, the McQuaid Invitational has gone from a little village of cross-country runners to a burgeoning metropolis.

The "City That Bradley Built" was comprised of 5,000 athletes this past Saturday, Oct. 1, at Rochester's Genesee Valley Park. Despite the rainy and cool conditions amid this flurry of activity, a microphone-wielding Bob Bradley was thoroughly enjoying his role as "step-by-step" commentator for the massive gathering.

Bob Bradley keeps spectators updated on the races from his post in the center of the three-mile course.

"It's a good feeling, seeing all those young people racing over the hills. Even on a rainy day, it seems like there was a lot of spirit. They were up for it," remarked Bradley, who has served as Mc-

Soccer squads surge at season's halfway mark

By Mike Latona

If this is what hitting mid-season stride is all about, then the Aquinas Institute girls' and McQuaid Jesuit boys' soccer teams are right on schedule.

AQ enjoyed a perfect four-game stretch last week, hiking its record to 6-4 in the process. The Little Irish won 5-0 at Mynderse Academy on Sept. 26 before tearing off three straight home wins: 6-3 over Bishop Kearney on Sept. 28; 6-0 over Nazareth Academy on Sept. 29; and 2-0 over Spencerport on Oct. 1.

Highlighting this hot stretch were Lisa Bellavia and Jessie Parmalee, who scored two goals each against BK; Tricia Di-Quattro, who collected three goals against Nazareth; and goalie Tara Bernardi, who recorded 14 saves for the shutout against Spencerport.

AQ Coach Gary Page was especially pleased about the win over Kearney, defeating Section 5 Class CC champion.

"We couldn't do anything wrong. He's (BK Coach Paul Forte) got a good team, but we caught them on a good day for us," Page commented.

Meanwhile, McQuaid looked impressive by blanking the Aquinas boys' squad, 2-0, in a City-Catholic League showdown at McQuaid Sept. 29. The Knights then picked up a 3-0 home win over Brighton on Oct. 1, raising their record to 6-3.

Christian Garofalo and Pat Holden scored for the Knights in the Aquinas win, giving Coach Dan Schied his 100th career victory. Holden, Ken Perelli and Sean Crowley tallied against Brighton.

More sports highlights

Geneva DeSales picked up its first Finger Lakes West girls' soccer win of the season with a 3-2 overtime decision over host Red Jacket on Sept. 26. Renee Wiesner scored the Saints' first goal, and Melissa Liberatore got the tying goal with five minutes remaining in regulation as well as the game-winner with five minutes to go in overtime.

Elmira Notre Dame ran its girls' soccer record to 11-0-1 by winning twice last week: 5-1 over Elmira Southside on Sept. 26 behind Asha Persaud's two goals; and 6-1 over Hornell on Sept. 28 as Jenny Spaziani scored three goals and
