BOB WALSH FOR GOVERNOR

WHO IS BOB WALSH?

Bob Walsh is a founder and presently Managing Director of the Securities Industry Division at the American Institute of Banking. Bob's thirty years of experience in the banking and securities industry include positions with The New York Stock Exchange, Citibank, the Bank of New York and Barclays Bank International. Bob Walsh, 49, is married with three children and five grandchildren. He has been active in his parish and community in Deer Park, N.Y.

WHY IS BOB WALSH RUNNING FOR GOVERNOR?

Bob recognizes the need for important changes in New York state. While he holds positions on key issues that concern all of us, abortion is his primary issue. No other candidate, not Cuomo, not Golisano, and certainly not Pataki will work to restore legal protection to the unborn child. Only Bob Walsh opposes all public funding of abortion and supports parental consent for a minor's abortion.

DID YOU KNOW?

1. With the notable exception of Herb London for Comptroller, the Republican and Conservative Parties have betrayed their pro-life principles by nominating a pro-abortion statewide slate of candidates.
2. In 1992 Senator Al D'Amato won because of the vote on the Right to Life Party line. But this year, this same Senator wants only a pro-abortion Catholic candidate and selects George Pataki, who promptly switches his position to pro-abortion.
3. The Republican and Conservative leaders are hoping that the pro-life voters' great dislike of Mario Cuomo will attract votes for pro-abortion George Pataki. As Ray Kerrison wrote in the New York Post on 5/27/94: "...it is too high a price to beat Cuomo on the shattered bodies of unborn babies...some things in life are nonnegotiable.

WHERE TO THE CANDIDATES STAND ON ABORTION?

Mario Cuomo — "of course women should have the right to abortion, and we protect in this state that right even if they are poor. I support Roe v. Wade and we always have." (Gubernatorial TV Debate 10/14/94)

George Pataki — "My position is very simple. I am pro-choice. It's the woman's decision. I support a woman's right to choose, regardless of what the U.S. Supreme Court does or what Congress does in Washington, we in New York should not take away the woman's basic right to choose." (Empire State Report 8/94)

".....I will continue Medicaid fundingwe are not going to deny Medicaid funding, and we are not going to put any legal impediments to abortion in this state...." (NY Times -10/10/94)

Thomas Golisano — "The United States of America and New York State have made it very clear on this issue; they want to be pro-choice so we are going to be pro-choice" (Gubernatorial TV Debate 10/14/94)

WHAT ARE PRO-LIFE LEADERS SAYING ABOUT THE NEW YORK RACE FOR GOVERNOR?

Msgr. James Lisante, Director, Family Life Programs, Rockville Centre Diocese: "Senator D'Amato made sure that almost all statewide candidates in New York were pro-choice this year. (Dr. Herb London is the exception).....no party should enjoy our support if they can wantonly disregard the rights of the most defenseless members of our society." (The Long Island Catholic, 9/8/94)

Dr. Jerome Higgins, Vice Chairman, Long Island Coalition for Life: "A Pataki win will make both major parties in New York state pro-abortion. Bob Walsh is a superb candidate and is the only choice for those who wish to protect preborn babies."

Governor Robert Casey of Pennsylvania: "I cannot understand why the Republican leadership appears suddenly to be backing away from a principled stand on the most important value issue of our time...." (New York Times 9/17/94)

Rev. Paul Driscoll, former Human Life Coordinator, Diocese of Rockville Centre: "Both the Democratic and Republican parties have nominated pro-abortion candidates for governor and for Senator ... this means that pro-life Catholics are being treated as second-class citizens by their own parties." (Huntington, N.Y., 10/2/94)

Bill Reel, Columnist: "My vote will go to the only candidate for governor who agrees with me, Right to Life standbearer Bob Walsh." (Newsday, 10/19/94)

Bill Doyle, Chairman, New York State Right to Life Committee PAC: "George Pataki's flip flop on abortion is the best example of his back room politics approach to government. Your vote for Bob Walsh and Herb London is essential to the unborn and honest government."

And...

Lawrence Levy, Political Columnist who supports abortion rights: "... many conservatives remain skeptical and may choose instead to vote Anybody But Pataki-most likely the Right to Life Party candidate, Robert Walsh. This soft-spoken, articulate banker is an attractive alternative to Pataki." Pataki May Regret Latest Flip-Flop on Abortion" (Newsday, 10/19/94)
