topics — as well as remarks about various other issues — will be compiled into a report that will be sent to Washington, D.C., for use at the upcoming White House conference.

A second copy of the report will be submitted to Albany in anticipation of a Governor's Conference on aging tentatively scheduled for March, 1995. That conference, however, was scheduled by lame duck Gov. Mario Cuomo's office. Kenny said at this point she did not know if Gov.-elect George Pataki will continue plans to hold the conference.

In addition, several delegates will also take part in the conferences to emphasize local seniors' viewpoints, Kenny said.

THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER

EDWIN SULEWSKI
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Don't funerals cost too much?

The value of a funeral cannot be measured totally in economic terms. You must also consider social and emotional factors. In economic terms you pay for the service of trained, licensed people, on call 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Our staff works to assist you when your loved one dies. The cost of a funeral also pays for our comfortable building, special vehicles and a casket. More importantly, a funeral gives you an important opportunity to express your emotions and feelings about the deceased. Though a meaningful ceremony you can express your love and say good-bye. We cannot set a value on these factors but psychologists have noted they are very important for healthy living.
