

Christmas FEATURE

Gallery hosts pageant with medieval flavor

The Rochester Memorial Art Gallery and the Genesee Early Music Society hosted a Medieval Christmas pageant Dec. 3-4, complete with chants, carols, drama and dance. The pageant was presented by the Cathedral Choir School, under the direction of Jura Litchfield, diocesan associate director of liturgical music; an instrumental ensemble led by Colleen Liggett; and 10 actors, directed by Thomas Bohrer. Clockwise from top left: Mary, Joseph, (Maura and Robert Slon,) and three shepherds, (Bohrer, Padraic M. Collins-Bohrer and Michael Meath) marvel at the Christ Child's birth; an archangel (Jean Gordon Ryon) leads the Magi (Stephen Bohrer) to the baby Jesus; an angel appears to the Virgin Mary in her dream, telling her of the heavenly miracle about to take place; Mary's confused and shocked reaction to the angel's news; members of the Cathedral Choir (left to right) Jordan Grant, Matt Harp, and Nick Proukou.

Photos by Wendy Longlade
Photo intern

t always the con-
ies, I felt
Father
his life,
a more
s someings I've hifit is a stone is with the itive. If excuse
will be
g Mass
further
m Minitage of open-
I hope
mbaste

25 per-
Mass at regular where gested.
parish
still re-
ts they y kind-
t door-
obliga-
le. You
: them,

MEN
WORLD
95