Marty Haugen Concert & Workshop

March 24 & 25, 1995

St. Helen's Church
310 Hinchey Rd., Gates, NY

Join us as we welcome liturgical musician and composer, Marty Haugen, to help us kick off our Lenten '95 Parish Mission, "Learn to Live the Story." As the composer of some of today's most beloved liturgical music such as "Mass of Creation," "Gather Us In," "Canticle of the Sun," "We Walk By Faith" and many others, Marty will join the St. Helen's Music Ministry in presenting "A Journey of Story" on Friday, March 24 beginning at 7:00 PM. This dramatic and musical presentation plays out a living Stations of the Cross combined with several songs for Marty's "Agape" collection. "A Journey of story" travels through the story of the Cross and into the living out of the gospel message in the words and lives of some notable figures in human history. After a brief intermission, Marty will treat attendees with a musical concert that is sure to be as enjoyable as it is inspiring.

On Saturday, March 25, Marty will present a workshop focusing on how music and storytelling are inseparable and offer different and practical ways to musically and dramatically use "story" in the liturgical life of your parish. A special "read through" of new music will help us look to the Paschal Mystery celebrated at Easter and each Sunday as "The Great Story."

Seating is limited. Advance registration is necessary by using the form below.
