The Catholics of the Diocese of Rochester — and Rochesterians at large — have great cause to take pride in the appointment of native son Monsignor James M. Moynihan as ninth bishop of the Diocese of Syracuse.

In honor of this joyful event, the Catholic Courier — working in cooperation with The Catholic Sun, newspaper of the Syracuse diocese — is producing a commemorative supplement that will precede the new bishop's ordination and installation on May 29, 1995. This special section will chronicle Bishop-designate Moynihan's life and career, review the many historical connections between the dioceses of Rochester and Syracuse, and provide a wealth of information on the ordination/installation ceremonies and on local delegations planning to attend.

In view of Bishop-designate Moynihan's lengthy and varied service to his home diocese, we expect the supplement will be very exciting to our readers.

You can participate in the excitement by placing your advertising message in this commemorative edition. Advertising ranging from personal accolades to full-pages is available. To place your advertisement, call the Catholic Courier's advertising department at 716-328-4340 or mail the coupon below.

Pope John Paul II holds an olive branch during Palm Sunday services in St. Peter's Square April 9, in remembrance of Jesus' triumphal entrance into Jerusalem the week before his death.

Pope plans slate of activities, including Way of the Cross

By John Thavis
Catholic News Service

VATICAN CITY — Pope John Paul II plans to lead a full slate of Easter activities, including the traditional two-hour Way of the Cross in downtown Rome, the Vatican said.

The 74-year-old pope, who has been slowed over the past year by a thigh injury, will conduct six major liturgical ceremonies during the four-day weekend. On Easter Sunday, April 16, he celebrates Mass in St. Peter's Square and delivers the "urbi et orbi" blessing, a message broadcast worldwide.

The pope has largely recovered from a broken thigh bone suffered in a fall last year, but he continues to move slowly at times. A cane is kept at the ready during papal audiences and events.

Easter brings the heaviest liturgical schedule of the year for the pope. It also brings the largest numbers of pilgrims and tourists, who flock to the colorful ceremonies.

The late-night Way of the Cross on Good Friday is held at the Rome Colosseum, a place of early Christian martyrdom. It is considered the most grueling event because the pope walks and stands throughout the ceremony, carrying a cross in remembrance of Christ's Passion.

Here is the pope's Easter schedule as released by the Vatican:

- April 13, Holy Thursday — 9:30 a.m., the pope celebrates a Chrism Mass in St. Peter's Basilica with the cardinals, bishops and priests who reside in Rome; 5:30 p.m., the pope celebrates Mass at the Rome Basilica of St. John Lateran, where he washes the feet of 12 priests in imitation of Christ at the Last Supper. The traditional collection at this Mass is this year marked for relief projects in Liberia and Sierra Leone, West African nations with longstanding civil conflicts.

- April 14, Good Friday — 5 p.m., in St. Peter's Basilica, the pope presides over a Liturgy of the Word, the adoration of the cross and Communion; 9:15 p.m., the pope leads the Way of the Cross at the Rome Colosseum, a series of meditations with a talk at the end.

- April 15, Holy Saturday — 9 p.m., in St. Peter's Basilica, the pope leads an Easter Vigil service.

- April 16, Easter — At 10:30 a.m., the pope celebrates Mass in St. Peter's Square. Afterward, from the central balcony of the basilica, he imparts his blessing "urbi et orbi" — "to the city and the world."

As far as televised Easter services, both NBC and the Armed Forces Radio and Television Services will feed a broadcast of the Easter Sunday Mass from the Diocese of Albany on April 16.

NBC's affiliates will air the Mass according to their local schedules.

Armed forces services will air the Mass overseas to bases in Azores, Crete, Diego Garcia, Germany, Iceland, Italy, Japan, Korea, Marshall Islands, Okinawa, Panama, and one domestic base in Adak, Alaska.

The Mass will also be transmitted via closed circuit to Antarctica, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Macedonia and Turkey.

Production of the hourlong Mass broadcast is funded by the Catholic Communication Campaign.

The Eternal Word Television Network and the Faith & Values Channel, both cable outlets, have lined up an array of special Holy Week and Easter programs.
