Advertising Deadline: May 15

The Catholics of the Diocese of Rochester - and Rochesterians at large - have great cause to take pride in the appointment of native son, Monsignor James M. Moynihan as ninth bishop of the Diocese of Syracuse.

In honor of this joyful event, the Catholic Courier - working in cooperation with The Catholic Sun, newspaper of the Syracuse diocese - is producing a commemorative supplement that will precede the new bishop's ordination and installation on May 29, 1995. This special section will chronicle Bishop-designate Moynihan's life and career, review the many historical connections between the dioceses of Rochester and Syracuse, and provide a wealth of information on the ordination/installation ceremonies and on local delegations planning to attend.

In view of Bishop-designate Moynihan's lengthy and varied service to his home diocese, we expect the supplement will be very exciting to our readers.

You can participate in the excitement by placing your advertising message in this commemorative edition. Advertising ranging from personal accolades to full-pages is available. To place your advertisement, call the Catholic Courier's advertising department at 716-328-4340 or mail the coupon below.

Each week more than 50,000 copies of the Catholic Courier and 36,000 copies of The Catholic Sun are distributed to paid subscribers throughout 19 counties of New York state. Based on current demographics, more than 150,000 people will be reading about Bishop-designate Moynihan in their Catholic newspapers.

Advertising in the Catholic Courier and The Catholic Sun is an excellent way to reach these readers, who place a great deal of confidence in businesses that advertise in these papers. Advertisers find the newspapers to be very cost-effective advertising media.

I want to participate in the Commemorative Edition(s) to be published by the Catholic Courier and the Catholic Sun. Please send or fax me additional information.
