the Laser program on solid ground. "I'm excited for next year and the year after," Turek remarked.

Bishop Kearney's superior individual talent could carry the Kings to a top-four finish in the Section 5 Class B meet, according to Coach Chris Jones.

Leading BK athletes, all juniors, are Chandra Rivers (100, 200), Mary Finucane (long and triple jumps), Amorette Shaw (400, 400 hurdles), and Mercy transfer Danyel Gardner (800, 1,500).

In addition, sophomore Jenny Simons combines with Rivers, Finucane and Gardner to make a potent 400 relay.

"All these girls have a good chance of placing at sectionals, with a couple of them winning sectionals," commented Jones, who coaches the BK girls along with LaMont Jarrett.

In the Southern Tier, Elmira Notre Dame is aiming for its second consecutive Section 4 Class D title May 20 at Windsor.

"We should do all right. A lot of the members of last year's team want to do well again; it's been a goal of theirs," said Coach Ed Shelling.

Top Notre Dame girls are juniors Kristi Colavita (100, 200) and Jeanette Klee (400, long jump); sophomores Jen Cyr (hurdles), Katrina Buttleman (1,500, 3,000), Amanda Lawson (shot put, discus), and Sara Then (400 relay); freshman Liz Buckley (high jump); and seniors Alanah Keddell (high and triple jumps) and Georgia Grieco (400 relay).

Geneva DeSales is led by senior Stephanie Nearpass who plans to continue her track career at Dartmouth, an Ivy League college, next year. Nearpass is the two-time defending Section 5 Class D champ in the 1,500 and 3,000. She won both those events at the May 13 Iron Horse Invitational in Waterloo, earning the meet's Outstanding Performer honors.

"Her times have been very good. She's very happy and running strong," noted DeSales Coach Steve Muzzi.

Sophomores Kelly DiNieri (200) and Sue Nearpass (800) are two other high-ranking Saint athletes. Sue Nearpass also throws the shot put.

Completing DeSales' roster are senior Nicole Barnhardt (200) and junior Stephanie Kelly (800, long jump).

Nazareth College men to host semifinal game

PITTSFORD — The Nazareth College men's lacrosse team will host an NCAA Division III semifinal contest this coming Sunday, May 21.

The Golden Flyers advanced to the semis with a 16-8 win over Hartwick College May 14 at Nazareth. Junior attackman Neal Powless collected six goals and one assist as the Flyers improved their record to 13-0.

Nazareth will now take on Ohio Wesleyan, which edged Rochester Institute of Technology, 16-15, in another May 14 quarterfinal game.

The semifinal contest is scheduled for 2 p.m. this Sunday. The winner will advance to the national championship contest May 28 in College Park, Maryland, against the winner of Salisbury State and Gettysburg.

Nazareth is attempting to capture the school's second national title, and first since 1992. This marks the fifth straight year the Golden Flyers have reached the Final Four, and the first time they have hosted a semifinal game.

McQuaid sophomore captures sectional tennis crown

McQuaid Jesuit sophomore Chad Riley dominated his opposition last week in winning the Section 5 Class A boys' tennis championship.

Riley took the title with a 6-3, 6-2 win over Brighton's Jeremy Wurtzman. The finals were held Saturday, May 13, at Pittsford Sutherland High School.

Riley pulled away from a 3-3 first-set tie by winning the final three games; and after falling behind 0-2 in the second set, swept the next six games. Riley, seeded No. 1, did not lose a set in five sectional matches last week.

The title match was nearly an all-McQuaid affair. The Knights' Dan Somers, seeded No. 3, reached the Class A semifinals before falling to Wurtzman.

McQ (8-0, 9-0) also kept its dual-record perfect with a 3-2 City-Catholic League win over host Wilson May 9.

More sports highlights

McQuaid's golf team (9-0-1) whipped previously unbeaten Brockport, 10-2, May 8 at Oak Hill Country Club.
