

McQuaid squads lead championship blitz

By Mike Latona

Efforts this spring by McQuaid Jesuit's tennis, golf and baseball teams in City-Catholic League play have added up to a big fat zero.

For the Knights' opponents, that is. Amazingly, all three McQ clubs have compiled perfect records against divisional foes: golf went 10-0 in the league and finished 13-0 overall; tennis ended up 12-0 in league play and was 14-0 overall as of last week; and the baseball team (11-0, 15-6) clinched the league crown with a 9-1 road win over Aquinas Institute this past Monday, May 22.

While the baseball team anticipates a high seeding when Section 5 play begins next week, members of the Knights' tennis and golf squads have already earned individual sectional titles.

In tennis, sophomore Chad Riley — a transfer student from Texas — has gone undefeated at first singles. He recently won the Section 5 Class A title and also triumphed in the City-Catholic tournament held May 19 at Franklin.

Coach Bob Armstrong said Riley is a good bet to go far in state-tournament play in early June.

"Chad is as complete a player as I've seen," Armstrong said.

Other City-Catholic champions from McQuaid included junior Dan Somers at second singles; seniors Joe Iuppa and Jason Clerk at first doubles; and junior Andy Hyatt and senior Brendan Zugibe at second doubles. Meanwhile, junior Jason Yee placed third in the league tournament at third singles.

Completing McQuaid's list of top players are juniors Andy Conroy and Rob James, and sophomore Wes Thurmond.

In golf, the Knights' Kevin Haefner finished as co-medalist in the Section 5 tournament May 22 at Country Club of Rochester. The sophomore's five-over-par total of 75 tied him with Le Roy's Tim Kennedy for top honors.

Haefner will now play in the state tournament June 3-5 along with McQuaid teammate Randy Teegardin, a senior. Teegardin shot 76 at sectionals to finish all alone in third place.
