Dancers bring nostalgia, grace to the airport

The Veterans Outreach Center, 459 South Ave., a non-profit counseling center for veterans and their families, sponsored a USO dance at the Greater Rochester International Airport June 2. Senior citizens and veterans attending the dance were encouraged to dress in era clothing or in their uniforms, if possible. Music was provided by the 14-piece Buffalo Swing Band. In addition to celebrating agencies like the United Service Organizations, June 14 (Flag Day) marks the day the first flag was adopted as a national symbol in 1777. All proceeds from the dance benefited the Veterans Outreach Center.

(Counterclockwise from left) Two seniors glide to the music during a slow dance; the second floor of the Greater Rochester International Airport allowed dancers plenty of room to swing; Sheryl Ferris provides vocal support with the Buffalo Swing Band.
