EDUCATION Supplement

A Catholic Courier Special Section

Publication Date:

Thursday, August 10, 1995

Advertising Deadline: July 27th

Lifelong Christian education emerged from Rochester's Seventh Synod as the most important goal for the diocese. Thus, as schools and students gear up for fall, the Courier makes its annual study of trends, developments and issues in education - from kindergarten to the continuing education of adults, from Catholic schools to religious education.

Each week the Catholic Courier is delivered to more than 50,000 homes throughout the 12-county Diocese of Rochester. When you advertise in the Courier, you will introduce your organization to more than 85,000 readers.

With more than 50,000 students enrolled in parochial schools or religious education programs and over 1,200 teachers in more than 60 diocesan, parochial and private elementary and secondary schools, this special supplement will enable you to reach a tremendous number of people preparing for the 1995-96 school year.

For more information or to participate in the Courier's Education Supplement, call your sales representative or the Catholic Courier advertising department at 716-328-4340.
