YOUTH FEATURE

Extra Credit!

• The Aquinas Institute Marching Percussion Ensemble placed first in the state Percussion Circuit Championships.

The competition was held May 18 at the Rochester War Memorial. AQ ensemble members included Ryan Barclay, Chris Zapf, Shawn Michalek, Ryan Hall, Jeanette Burke, Chaitra Demino, Kevin Caccamise, Phillip Henry, Jeff Story and Mike Lasponara.

• Joanne Myers, a senior at Our Lady of Mercy, recently captured first place in both the poetry and prose categories in the Sokol Junior Literary Awards.

The contest was sponsored by Friends of the Rochester Public Library. Joanne is a parishioner at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, Irondequoit.

• Two other Mercy students, Heidi Liebert and Michelle Moosbrugger, were named finalists in the 1995 Varsity Volunteer competition, sponsored by Camp Good Days and Special Times, Inc.

These awards recognize youths' volunteer contributions in the Rochester area.

• Bishop Kearney students David and Sarah Jones received scholarships from the Irondequoit Council of the Greater Rochester Metro Chamber of Commerce.

The award is presented annually to two business students each from Bishop Kearney, Irondequoit and Eastridge high schools.

• Allison Edwards, a parishioner of Holy Rosary Church, Rochester and student at Adelphi University on Long Island, has been elected to represent Region I (northeastern United States) of the National Catholic Student Coalition.

The coalition is a student-directed group of campus ministries and Catholic student organizations.

• Kathryn A. Domyville, a parishioner of St. Mary's Church, Elmira, has graduated magna cum laude from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Kathryn, who received an architecture degree, is listed in Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities.

• Katrina Combs, a senior-to-be at St. John Fisher College, has been named winner of the college's Ann and Martin Birmingham Award for Volunteer Service.

Katrina earned a $3,500 scholarship and $500 honorarium. Her many on- and off-campus volunteer efforts have included WFCX campus radio, peer adviser, tutor, intramural athletics, Spirit Week organizer, Rochester Friendly Home, Teddi Project, Bethany House, and Jennifer Koon Scholarship Fund.

• Several St. John Fisher students spent a week in May volunteering at Lazarus House Ministries, a soup kitchen and homeless shelter in Lawrence, Mass.

Participants included Amy Mucenski, Carrie Schwartz, Cheryl Grady, Marianne Pena, Michele McMeekin, Paul Farney, Julie Scoville, Colleen McNichol, Matt Keppel and Mary Nester.

• Six students have been named St. John Fisher Student Employees of the Year. Winners included Julie Cichocki, Jennifer Munger and Todd Schiffmacher.

Receiving honorable mention were Pamela Hendrickson, James Brian Mason and Matthew Oathout.
