Swelter, smiles accompany first SSJ golf tournament

By Mike Latona
Staff writer

PERINTON — "Did we have fun?," Sister Janice Morgan, SSJ, asked the gathering. "Yes," came the enthusiastic response.

"Are we glad it's over?," inquired Sister Morgan, recently elected congregational vice president.

"YES!" several voices piped up, even more emphatically.

Indeed, 18 holes of golf in 93-degree heat proved to be a challenging workout for Sister Morgan and 15 other Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester last Monday, July 31.

Consider that the afternoon's most memorable moment for Sister Mary Ann Coughlin, SSJ, is of all four members in her group landing their approach shots in the same sand trap.

Yet there was a good amount of shot-making — and plenty of enjoyment — during the first-ever "Sisters' Scramble," held at Eagle Vale Golf Course.

A total of 101 golfers participated in the tournament, which raised approximately $5,000 for ministries operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester. Organizers hope to make this an annual event, reasoning that "if there's a Father's Day and a Mother's Day, it's about time for a Sister's Day."

Golfers used a scramble format, in which teams of four all hit from the same spot and used the best shot. The winning score of 61 was posted by Tony Mordaci,

Although some of the participating Sisters of St. Joseph are novices at the game, others own extensive experience.

"You'd be surprised at the number of sisters who golf. I know a couple of us do, but it wasn't until something like this that I realized there were so many," said Sister Coughlin, a teacher at Nazareth Academy. She enjoys frequent golf outings with Sister Mary Clouser, SSJ, and Sister Mary Ann Mayer, SSJ, who also took part in the inaugural Sisters' Scramble.

Although Sister Sarah Grundman, SSJ, rates herself a "better bowler than golfer," she said she's anxious to participate in the tournament again next year. "Once you hit a couple of good shots, you want to go back and do it again," said Sister Grundman, who works at the order's motherhouse in Pittsford.

Sister Ellen Galvin, SSJ, who serves as pastoral associate at Rochester's St. Thomas More Church, played in the same group as Sister Grundman. She said her team "hit some good shots, some lucky shots and some frustrating shots."

Teammate Jim Crowley had a suggestion for Sister Galvin: "Take a two-month sabbatical, play golf, and you'll be on the tour next year."

Had it not been for her vocation, another Sister of St. Joseph who competed in the Sisters' Scramble may well have become a touring professional. Sister Theresa Daniel Knapp, SSJ, was the western New York state women's runner-up in 1939 — when she was only 13 years old.

Yet a 25-year hiatus from the game soon followed for Sister Knapp, who recently retired from Nazareth College after serving as assistant director of student activities and supervisor of payroll. She only returned to golf after the Second Vatican Council determined that women religious no longer were required to wear habits in public.

"We have much to be grateful to Pope John XXIII for," Sister Knapp quipped.

Thoughts to Consider

EDWIN SULEWSKI
Funeral Director

What are some ways to help a child who has lost a parent?

First it is important to make sure the child is honestly included in all the information and planning. This means being honest about the death and answering the child's questions. It also means allowing but not forcing children to go to the funeral or visitation as they wish. Secondly, a child needs love and security. Let a child know they will be cared for, take an interest in schoolwork and include them in play. Some children resent being pressured to accept burdens beyond their reach. "Taking over for Dad or Mom" may be too much responsibility. Naturally, changes will occur but a child needs time and help in adjusting to them.
