HOW DO CREMATION SERVICES DIFFER?

A cremation service, if this is your wish, need not be substantially different from a traditional funeral.

The details of the service are, as always, entirely the choice of the family. But visitation, with an open or closed casket present, and final committal at the cemetery can all be part of a funeral with cremation.

We have more information on this subject for you, if you would like to give us a call or write us. We'd be pleased to help you.
