

READ THIS!

PHOTOGRAPH BY STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER S. JOHN WILKIN

"I like to read poetry outside, so I can say it out loud. It's more romantic."

Katie Goins, a parishioner of St. Mary's Church in Dansville, is joined by family dog Pebbles outside where she enjoys reading.

S. John Wilkin/Staff photographer

m for le, for sh air

so I
It's

riority
voices.
More
reads
n, she ms in er that High
Anne
tional rs.
od of ind of

Sandy Instiprefer uth in She'ex-
ten, re-
the li-
almost

some-
project,
minute.
giously
ens re-

among okstore
s clerk
ed that F other material

the (religious) gifts and the Bibles," Jaime, 16, said.

Obviously, reading might not be every teen's cup of tea. But if you get bored with television, or if songs on the radio are becoming a little repetitive, perhaps a good book or magazine is just what you're looking for.
"People who read and write tend to be a little more open-minded. They tend to understand people better," Katie commented.

"It kind of gives you a good insight on other people in the world," Charlene agreed.
Reading, said Anne, "forces you to really take in and process what's being presented."
Pay heed to Matt's warning, however: Reading can be addictive.
"It's just interesting to read," Matt said. "You find out a lot of things you didn't know before. Reading is a great experience."

Coming Next Week:
Teens tune in on their varying musical tastes.

CTIONS

MILESTONES
Publication Date: April 18
Adv. Deadline: April 4

This annual supplement will honor the achievements of priests and religious celebrating jubilees of their vocations, and those retiring from active ministry. It will provide biographical sketches and offer a model for others considering vocations.

OTM T-Shirt Design Contest
Design a T-Shirt for On The Move, Win $100 & Have your design printed!

Your design can't be any bigger than a regular sheet of copier paper (8-1/2 x 11"), and has to be limited to two colors. Other than that, we don't really care what you include as long as it fits the theme of OTM.

When you've perfected your design, send it to OTM Tees, Catholic Courier, 1150 Buffalo Road, Rochester, NY 14624-1899. With your awesome design, be sure to include your name, address, age, and school (and your phone number if you want us to call you, should you win!).

When we get enough entries or find the perfect design, we'll pick a winner. Designs become the property of the Catholic Courier and we reserve the right to alter designs to fit specs (don't rules stink!).

Catholic Courier
Because life isn't black & white.