

On the MOVE

"I Feel Really Happy!"

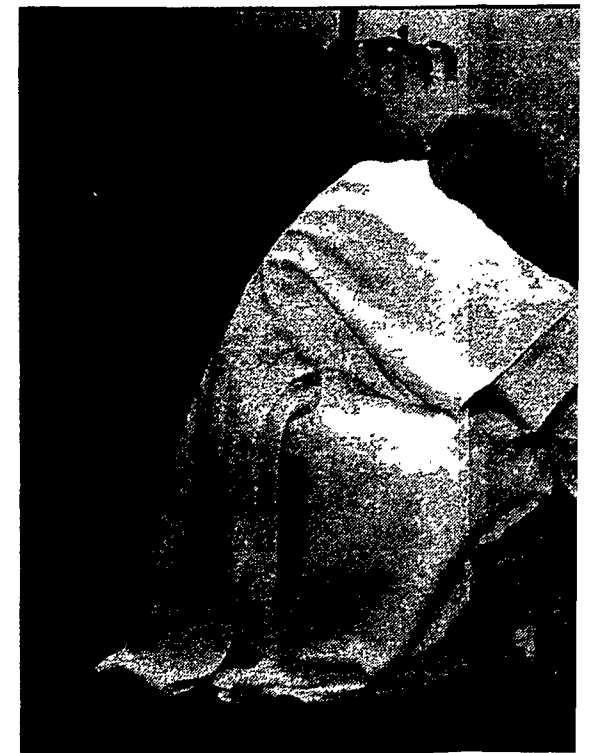

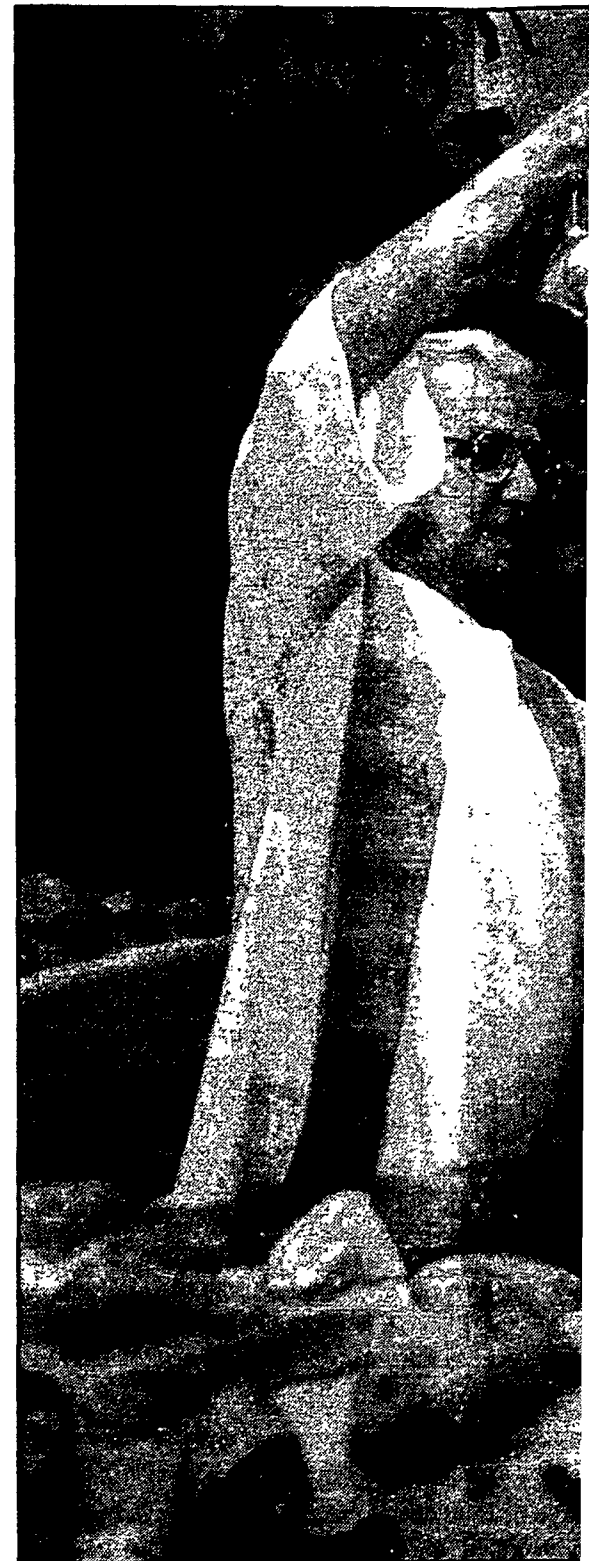

Dolores Van Noy of Hamlin had a busy and fruitful evening at St. Elizabeth Anne Seton Church April 6. Dolores, a 13-year-old student at Brockport Middle School, was baptized, confirmed, and received her first Communion during the Easter Vigil Mass.

Dolores wasn't alone in receiving the sacraments. Her father Robert, a catechumen, and mother Catherine, a candidate, completed the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults program during the vigil service alongside their daughter.

As part of her RCIA program, Dolores studied the saints and took as her "saint" Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha.

"She did good stuff for black people and Native Americans and set up churches for them," Dolores explained.

At the conclusion of the vigil, Dolores, summed up her feelings about becoming a member of the Catholic Church: "It was really special to me."

★ ★ COMING ATTRACTIONS ★ ★

RETIREMENT

Publication Date: May 2
Adv. Deadline: April 18

This special "golden years" supplement will offer retirement information from the unique perspective provided by Catholic teaching and values. Financial planning, money management, volunteering, travel and health-related issues will be covered.

SUMMER GUIDE

Publication Date: May 23
Adv. Deadline: May 9

As Courier readers prepare for the summer months, this special supplement will present them with a host of activities for their consideration. From nearby church-sponsored festivals and retreats to places beyond, this supplement will serve as a well-used guide.

Advertising in the Catholic Courier reaches more than 85,000 readers in the 12-county Diocese of Rochester each week. By regularly advertising in the Courier, you can reach our readers and show them the products and services you offer.

For more information or to place your ad, call the Courier's advertising department at 716-328-4340.

Catholic Courier
...Because life isn't black & white.

ARNDT
FUNERAL HOME
Family Owned & Operated

RONALD JOHN ARNDT
ROBERT J. ARNDT
SHARI L. ARNDT
Funeral Directors
225-6350
1118 Long Pond Road
(South of Maiden Lane)