

Jesus, I trust in you

The Association of the Apostles of Divine Mercy

We are Scriptural

Be merciful even as your Father is merciful (Lk 6:36)

Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy (Mt 5:7)

Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of my brethren, you did it to me (Mt 25:40)

Who and What We Are:

- By Church (Canon) Law, we are a de facto private association of practicing Catholics.
- We enjoy the support and endorsement of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception at the National Shrine of Divine Mercy.
- From our very inception, we have been in direct communication with the Pastoral Office of the Diocese of Rochester and have profited greatly from their counsel.
- We have a "Rule" or "Way of Life" that inspires us to live trusting in Jesus' Mercy.
- Currently, we consist of two base communities each of which "seeks to become an intimate prayerful community committed to each other with mercy as our focus by building upon our foundation of prayer - Eucharistic Adoration - devotion to Mary our Mother of Mercy, and living the ABC's of Mercy."

DIRECTION STATEMENT

Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas

Animated by the Gospel and Catherine McAuley's passion for the poor, we, the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas, are impelled to commit our lives and resources to act in solidarity with

- the economically poor of the world, especially women and children;
- women seeking fullness of life and equality in church and society;
- one another as we embrace our multicultural and international reality.

This commitment will impel us to

- develop and act from a multicultural, international perspective;
- speak with a corporate voice;
- work for systemic change;
- act in harmony and interdependence with all creation; and
- call ourselves to continued conversion in our lifestyle and ministries.
