From July 23 to July 26, 198 campers and 130 volunteers came together for St. Margaret Mary's 12th annual Vacation Bible School in Irondequoit. The campers filled their days with Bible stories, crafts and music classes. (top photo) Volunteer Liz Taillie, 11, lends a hand to Luke Spencer during art class. (above left) Following the midday snack break campers and volunteers join for a lively group "circle prayer". (right) At the end of the day, Joe DeMaria proudly presents his mother Lori DeMaria with the wind chime he made in crafts class.
