MORE MYTHS ABOUT McQUAID JESUIT

You cannot play sports and do well in school at the same time.

McQuaid Jesuit students combine the best of both worlds! Our students manage to balance their academic obligations with energetic participation in athletics and co-curricular activities. More than 55% participate in interscholastic sports and more than 80% play intramurals. Since 1973, McQuaid Jesuit has distinguished itself by winning 34 Section V Championships and several state athletic championships as well.

Single-gender schools like McQuaid Jesuit are effective! Research shows that within these schools, there is more order and discipline, greater leadership opportunities, fewer distractions, greater concentration on the academic environment and higher expectations related to achievement.

You cannot succeed in an all boys school like McQuaid Jesuit.
