Teens march for peace

In honor of Martin Luther King Day, diocesan teens gathered for a "peace lock-in" Jan. 19 and 20 at St. Stephen's Church, Geneva. The youth explored such themes as peace and togetherness through prayer and other activities. The event included a march to Geneva's city hall where the group met with other marchers. The march ended at Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church for a service. Above, youth lead the parade with the banner they made; left, Rachel Wiggins hitches a ride on the back of Wayne Mosher.
