

FEATURE

'Jesus, the heart of the family'

Parenting MONTHLY FEATURE

The Diocese of Rochester sponsored "Jesus: The Heart of the Family," a day full of activities, prayer and fun for families, March 8 in Onanda Park, Canandaigua. (Top left) Nicole Zimmerman gets a bird's-eye view from the shoulders of her father Eric as her sister Leah and mother Anne work on a puzzle. (Top right) Joshua Onderdonk makes sure that his beard is securely taped on before taking part in a skit, and (bottom left) Scott Gosert listens as Lou Orsini (portraying Jesus) is about to heal an ailing Rebecca Olek. (Bottom right) Roni Antenucci, dressed as St. Elizabeth, tells the children stories of Jesus' childhood.

Matthew Scott • Staff photographer