

your church

Matthew Scott

th
arden,
herbs
ity.
d and

after ntly
of quiet
that's t's how

o do
Allison,

agreed.
this

spires
list
e draws
can ac-
get very

use
t with
St.
ds the
6-year-
3
eet
h for
in the

epicts
ed
s, and
nd.
art,
iod

ved
ibers at
l that mized

at
g to es
laureen

who has hurch

in the past — said she doesn't consider her volunteering to be a major chore.
"I love to draw," Maureen stated.
Similarly, Andrew doesn't view his youth group's art project to be very burdensome.
"We don't mind that much. It's fun," he said.
Meanwhile, Christopher said that his group's enthusiasm about the Bible garden may plant the seed, so to speak, for ever-increasing youth involvement at St. Mary of the Lake.
"Maybe I can set an example for other people and show that we, also, do our part," Christopher commented. "The garden was like a beginning for future development in helping around the church, and the community in general."
"I think it's good that people realize that kids are being involved," Kateri added. "It makes people feel good to know that they're there still, and that other youths are being encouraged."
At St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Andrew said that his group's art project — along with an increase in teen involvement in liturgical roles — all lead toward a full union with the adult parish community.
"I finally feel acceptance around everyone," Andrew stated. "We want to have the full experience."

Megan Kirchgessner (above left) and Andrew Lazzaro (below right) work on the mural being created by teens at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, Hamlin.

coming Supplements

Publication Date: April 17 - Deadline: April 3 nt will honor the significant achievements of priests and religious celebrating jubilees of e who are retiring from active ministry. It will provide biographical sketches of those in the lestones, and will focus on their lives as models for others considering vocations.

TRIMAGES Publication Date: May 15 - Deadline: May 1
 mmer plans, this supplement will tempt them with choice locations while serving as a plan- l foreign journeys. In addition to offering tips for choosing sites and making arrangements ht shrines and other religious sites of special interest to Catholic travelers.

Publication Date: June 13 - Deadline: June 1 (Bonus distribution to graduating students) lass of '97 as its members prepare for life after high school. In addition to the annual list- is special supplement also will contain feature articles on selected graduates, with special ons and plans for the future.

r is delivered to more than 50,000 homes throughout the 12-county Diocese of Rochester. When you ill introduce your organization to more than 85,000 readers.

or more information or to place your ad, call the advertising department at 716-328-4340 or 1-800-600-3628 (outside the Rochester calling area).

Courier . . . because life isn't always black & white

Coming next week: Confirmation

In the tradition of great Kearney musicals . . .

BISHOP KEARNEY HIGH SCHOOL

presents . . .

Join us for an unforgettable performance!

FEATURING THE BK ALUMNI PIT BAND

The new GERSHWIN musical comedy

May 1, 2 & 3 8:00 pm
 May 4, 1997 3:00 pm

Director
 Christine (Krzanowicz) Zaccour
 BK Class of 1988

For ticket information or reservations, please call the BK Event Line at (716) 342-7086
 The musical show is produced by arrangement with and the music and dialogue material furnished by and property of TANS- WITMARK MUSIC LIBRARY INC., 560 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10022