Upcoming Supplements

HEALTH

Publication Date: July 24 - Deadline: July 10

The Catholic Church's teaching on health-related issues stems from Scripture. This special supplement will offer readers a unique perspective on those issues while offering valuable information on modern health-care programs.

EDUCATION

Publication Date: August 14 - Deadline: July 30

The Rochester Diocese has made lifelong Christian education a top priority. Thus, as schools and students gear up for the first day of school, the Courier will make its annual study of trends, developments and issues in education - from kindergarten to the continuing education of adults, from Catholic schools to religious education programs.

CATHOLIC ORGANIZATIONS

Publication Date: September 18 - Deadline: September 4

The Diocese of Rochester is home to numerous organizations for lay Catholics from fraternal and service groups to spiritual and prayer leagues. This special section will provide an opportunity for such groups to inform Courier readers about their histories, purpose and membership opportunities.

Each week the Catholic Courier is delivered to more than 50,000 homes throughout the 12-county Diocese of Rochester. When you advertise in the Courier, you will introduce your organization to more than 85,000 readers.

For information or to place your ad, call the advertising department at 716-328-4340 or 1-800-600-3628 (outside the Rochester calling area).

How much is music a part of Patti Lawton's life?

A good indicator might be her knowledge of a musically related milestone, which she cites as quickly as a married couple might recall their wedding date.

"I started playing the guitar on June 18, two years ago - Paul McCartney's birthday," Patti, 15, noted.

Dan Howell, also, is a guitarist who has a strong allegiance to the Beatles.

"I listen to them too much," Dan, 15, remarked.

Both Patti and Dan play additional instruments - Patti, the trumpet and piano; Dan, the clarinet. But it was these teens' love for the guitar that led them to their involvement in God's Gobies.

Together for six months, the teen band consists of several youth-group members from Holy Name of Jesus

Church in Greece. Drummer Chris Masseh explained that a goby is a small fish, and Jesus is often symbolized by an image of a fish - hence, the name God's Gobies.

The group recently broke new ground by launching a coffeehouse series in the Knights of Columbus hall at Holy Name of Jesus. Patti, Dan and Chris are among four instrumentalists in the band, which also includes nine vocalists. Members plan to stage additional performances on Tuesday nights throughout the summer.
