Story by Mike Latona

Want to spice up your youth group activities and incorporate some spirituality? Then check out the youth group at St. John the Evangelist Church, in Spencerport.

"We do the most interesting themes," remarked Helen "Frookie" Hossenlopp, 17.

Such as a David Copperfield-ish "Top 10" approach to the Ten Commandments, where youth group members replace "Thou shalt not commit adultery" with "Just say no," "Thou shalt not steal" with "You are going to pay for that, aren't you?"

Then there's youth minister

Sue Versluys' favorite event, "Bubble Gum Night." Youths create multicolored sculptures by piecing used chunks of bubble gum together.

"It grosses everyone out," Versluys admitted.

The unusual pieces of architecture, Versluys said, help drive home the point that the efforts of youth are welcome.

MISSION NEWS

SOMETIMES PRAYER ALONE CAN HELP...

"When the pain is very strong," says Primosi Mujemula, a 35-year old Tanzanian with AIDS, "I pray. Then it does not hurt so much." Each day, Sister Gratiana Nunuga travels up to 100 miles to help care for, and pray with, the 195 persons with AIDS who live in the Mwanza

Diocese. At every visit, Primosi asks Sister Gratiana to pray with him. When she gives him her hand, her smile is reflected in his face; Primosi is immune to despair.

Often, when medicine offers no answers, only people like Sister Gratiana can help. You can, too. Please pray for Sister Gratiana, Primosi and the people of the Mwanza Diocese. And, please, support the work of the Church in the Missions through the Propagation of the faith.
