Four priests

church. He added that although currently the church doesn't allow married priests or ordained women, he thinks it will someday.

Since 1990, he has served as pastor of the Cayuga Team Ministry cluster composed of the parishes of St. Patrick's Church in Aurora; St. Joseph's in Cayuga; Our Lady of the Lake in King Ferry; and St. Michael's in Union Springs.

Father Ryan also pointed out that he's been lucky enough to experience being a "parent" for the last five years. Oscar Gendrope, a 23-year-old Mexican, came to live with the priest five years ago with his parents' permission so that he could obtain a better education. Father Ryan met him when he was stationed at the Diocese of Rochester's mission in Tabasco, Mexico, from 1984 to 1990. Gendrope is currently a junior at Cornell University, Father Ryan said.

"I've learned to be a parent," Father Ryan said. "He still speaks to me!" he added with a laugh.

Father Ryan pointed out that he has served as Gendrope's legal guardian in the United States, and that the young man recently expressed his gratitude to him in the form of a card given to the priest for his 25th anniversary.

"(The card) said 'Thanks for being my father,'" the priest said in a tone that evidenced he was moved by the young man's sentiment.

Father Ryan will celebrate his 25th year as a priest with a 1 p.m. Mass June 7 at St. Patrick's Church, followed by a reception at Wells College where he is lecturer in religion.

Father Ryan was ordained by Bishop Joseph L. Hogan on April 6, 1973, at St. Stephen's Church in Geneva. He subsequently served at St. Michael's Church in Penn Yan, until he went to St. Patrick's Church in Elmira. From 1973 to 1976, he also served as a campus minister at Keuka College, and from 1976 to 1977, he held the same position at Elmira College.

In 1977, he went to St. John the Evangelist Church in Greece where he worked until 1979. From 1979 to 1984, he worked with people with developmental disabilities at Newark Developmental Center. He then went to Mexico.

Father Ryan will take on a new pastorate at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church in Hamlin on June 30. Like his fellow jubilarians in the class of 1973, he expressed gratitude for having the opportunity to work with God's people.

"I've enjoyed everything," he said. "I'm looking forward to the future for change and growth."
